Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; light southerly winds.

The Twenty-Second.

As the day draws nearer the arrangements for the Twenty-second parade by the Washington Birthday Celebration Association are being hastened to completion and should the day be fair a large crowd will visit the city and the parade will be one of the largest ever seen in Alexandria. The line of march and the formation of the parade have heretofore been published. The military division will form on Fairfax street and on Prince street, with the right resting on Duke street. At the head will be the chief marshal with his aides and staff, and there also the distinguished guests will take position in carriages. As the parade's staff will be numerous, and as many guests will be present, the head of the line will be several squares in advance of the military division proper when the parade starts.

The second division, comprising the secret organizations, will form on south Fairfax street, with the right resting on Duke street.

The third division, consisting of the several companies of the local fire department and the visiting members of the Washington fire department, will form on Lee street, with the right resting on Duke street.

The fourth division, which will be made up of trades displays, will form on King street between Fairfax street and the wharf. A portion of this division will form on both north and south Lee street.

The parade is to form at the intersection of Fairfax and Duke streets, and at 2 p. m. will move west on Duke street to Patrick north on Patrick to Prince, east on Prince to Fairfax, north on Fairfax to King, west on King to Patrick, north on Patrick to Cameron, east on Cameron to Washington, and north on Washington to Queen, where it will disband.

The following are the chairmen of the committees in charge of the celebration: Reception, E. E. Downham; entertainment, Peter Von de Westelaken; transportation, Robert M. Graham; military, Maj. William M. Smith; secret organizations, W. H. Hamilton; civic organization, O. H. Kirk; carriage, Thomas Chaucery; press, James F. Peyton; decoration, W. W. Ballenger; music, George P. Aitchison.

The headquarters of the press committee will be in the Business Men's League rooms, at the corner of King and Washington streets, and the general committee headquarters in the Friendship engine house. R. E. Lee Camp Hall, on Prince street, will be used as the executive office and a reception will be tendered there the distinguished guests between 12 and 2 o'clock. The guests will be received by the officers of the association and the reception committee, of which Mr. E. E. Downham is chairman. A buffet luncheon will be served.

Dr. William M. Smith, chief marshal, will entertain the officers of the visiting military organizations at his home on Prince street.

A special feature of the evening's entertainment will be a band concert by the Naval Gun Factory Band, under the direction of Prof. Moody, at 7:30 o'clock at the reviewing stand, which will be located on the south side of King street in front of the Peabody School building. At this concert the following programme will be rendered: March, "The New Colonial"; Hall: medley overture, "Bis of Remick's Hits"; Lamp; waltz, "Daughter of Love"; Bennett; excerpts from the opera "Lucrezia Borgia"; Donizetti; selection, "Love's Sentinel"; Bathurst; patrol, "American"; Meacham; characteristic march, "Happy Henne"; Lamp; national air, "Star Spangled Banner"; Key.

The railroads will sell reduced rate tickets and the electric road and the ferry line will do their utmost to accommodate those who visit the city from Washington.

The ferry boat Woodbury will run according to its regular schedule throughout the day, and will continue her trips until 9:30 o'clock at night. It is expected that the military organizations from Washington will come here on the Woodbury. The electric road will run several special trains so that the crowds, as rapidly as they gather at the station in Washington, may be started to Alexandria. In like manner special trains will take the visitors back in the evening.

A meeting of the Friendship Veterans Fire Association will be held tonight for the purpose of completing arrangements for the part that organization will take in the parade. The veterans will draw the old hand engine, which is the successor to the one presented the company by George Washington, and, after the parade, the engine will be manned and an exhibition given. Chief Webster, of the police force, Mr. Augustus Butts and Mr. James Javin's are the oldest members of the company now living.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth arrived at the new union depot in an automobile about 10:45 o'clock this morning. Their appearance not having been previously announced, but few people were at the depot at the time. The bride party had come via Mount Vernon Avenue. The automobile drew up on the east side of the depot, and when it became known that Mr. Longworth and his bride were its occupants passengers who were waiting for trains, as well as others who had strolled into the depot, repaired to the east front for the purpose of getting a glimpse at the bride couple. The latter remained seated for about twenty minutes, during which time they returned salutations while a number of ladies and gentlemen were formally introduced to them. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were exceedingly pleasant toward those with whom they conversed, and impressed all with their cordiality. At 11:18 south-bound passenger train No. 29 of the Southern Railway rolled into the depot. At the end of the train was the palace car "Elysian," which had been fitted up for the bride party. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth boarded the car and a minute or so later the train glided away while the bride couple waited adieu to their newly-made Alexandria acquaintances. The porters at the depot who handled the baggage received one dollar each from Mr. Longworth. The bride party will go to Post Tampa, Fla. While at the depot Mrs. Longworth gave autographs to some persons who were introduced to her while the party were at the depot.

The Fishing Season.

The committee on public property advertise in the Gazette the annual sale at public auction of the fish wharf for one year. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund also order the renting of the fish benches in the market court. As several persons have expressed a desire to engage in the fish business in the market, the commissioners have adopted the plan outlined in the advertisement. During the two previous winters the weather was severe and the river was frozen for months at a time. That of 1905-06 has been open, and it is expected that the fishing season will be a good one, and both the fish wharf and fish benches should bring good prices.

The approach of the lenten season is pleasing to the fish dealers, as during that period their business always increases. At this time there is nothing to indicate that there will be any scarcity of fish the coming spring. There are sufficient fish in cold storage to meet any deficiency that may be caused by a severe storm or other unfavorable weather conditions and prevent the prices from getting higher than they are at present. Smoked fish are always in demand during the lenten season and dealers say that comparatively few buyers appreciate the value of them. There is a much greater variety of smoked fish to be had now than there was several years ago. Fresh shad from North Carolina are beginning to arrive but prices are quite high.

Anniversary of an Accident.

Today is the 21st anniversary of what is known as the Four-mile run accident by which six or seven people were killed. The accident occurred early on the night of Thursday, February 19, 1885, in a tunnel under what was at one time a portion of the Alexandria Canal. A south-bound freight train of the Washington Southern Railway was about to enter the tunnel when the Louisville express, north bound, the fastest train of the Southern Railway at that time, entered the southern end. The engine of the freight train was knocked from the rails and rolled down a bank to the shore on the east side of the track, while that of the passenger train was demolished. In the string of freight cars which were wrecked were several oil tanks, which exploded and took fire, and their contents while burning floated out into the cove. The latter soon resembled a burning lake. Everything combustible in connection with the freight train was destroyed, and the railway track twisted and contorted out of shape by the intense heat. The passenger cars were pushed away from the wreck and escaped serious injury. At the time of the accident there was but a single track through the tunnel. Later the stone work of the tunnel was removed and another track laid.

A Timely Suggestion.

Chief Webster of the police force suggest to housekeepers the advisability of taking due precautions next Thursday in order that thieves may not be given an opportunity of stealing from houses while the parade is in progress and people's attention is being centered on the same. As is generally the case, the city will be infested by suspicious characters on that day, and the police will be kept busy in protecting people from pickpockets. During the last 22d of February parade more than thirty questionable characters were taken in charge by the police. Every precaution will be taken on this occasion, but the officers cannot watch each home in the city.

Police Court.

[Justice H. R. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Five young men, who had been arrested by Officers Ferguson and Garvey, on a warrant, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed, the charge having been withdrawn.

Sherman Ford, colored, arrested by Officer Garvey charged with assaulting William Jackson, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Hattie Nelson, colored, charged with improper conduct, was fined $5.

Attempted Suicide.

Mrs. Alice Bowie, who lives on the line of the electric railway a short distance below this city, attempted suicide yesterday by swallowing carbolic acid. She was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital. It is thought that she is in a critical condition. Mrs. Bowie was in the house alone at the time, and in a fit of melancholy when she attempted to take her life. The deceased was attended by Drs. W. R. Warfield and S. D. Moore.

In Self Defense.

Major Hank, editor and manager of the Constitutional, Eminence, Ky., when he was recently attacked, four years ago, by Piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Kidney Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of Burns, Sores, Cuts and Wounds. 25c at E. S. Leadbetter & Son's drug store.

Personal.

Mr. W. H. Greenwell continues quite sick at his home on Prince street. Mrs. Robert F. Green, of this city, has accepted a position with the "Happyland" Opera Company which played in Washington last week and left yesterday with that company for Philadelphia under the chaperonage of Miss Wentworth and her mother, Mrs. Wentworth. Mrs. Green will be known on the stage by her maiden name, Margie Ramer. Mrs. C. M. Wood, is visiting relatives at Oakridge, Va.

The Hardy Dramatic Company.

The Hardy Dramatic Company will make their initial appearance in this city next Wednesday night, February 21, at the Opera House in their comedy, entitled "Naval Engagement." The performance will be under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus. The Hardy Company is recognized as a strong company and the play to be presented is considered one of their best. Seats can now be secured at Mr. Edgar Warfield's drug store or from the members of the Knights of Columbus.

Patriotic Services.

On the morning of the 22d, at 10:30 o'clock, there will be held in Christ Church a most interesting memorial and patriotic service under the auspices of Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R. Well known and eloquent speakers will make the addresses, and fine music will be a feature. The offertory will assist in the restoration of Pohick Church. Among those who have accepted invitations to take part in the services are Rev. R. H. McKim, of Washington, and Senator Dubois, of Idaho.

Death of Miss Auld.

Miss Margaret B. Auld, an old, well-known and much esteemed resident of Fairfax county, died this morning at "Strathblane," the residence of her brother, Mr. George Auld. The deceased was 76 years old. She was born in Scotland, but came to this country in early childhood, taking up her residence in Fairfax county. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church, and was consistent and faithful in all the duties of life. She leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will regret her death.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Thomas E. Spinks, whose death occurred Thursday night, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 1443 Duke street. The services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Stump, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The services at the grave were conducted by Alexandria Lodge of Elks, of which the deceased was a member. The pallbearers were members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Alexandria Lodge of Elks.

Death of Mr. Wood.

Mr. James P. Wood, of Richmond, who had been ill at the residence of his cousin, Mr. Thos. W. White, on south Washington street, for several weeks past, died yesterday morning. The deceased had lived in Richmond up to several months ago, when he made his home with relatives of this city. He was connected with the Whig, a newspaper published in Richmond many years ago, and served in the war between the States.

Killed in Railroad Accident.

A dispatch received in this city yesterday stated that John F. Beach, a government inspector of building construction, of Lorton Valley, Fairfax county, was killed in a railroad accident yesterday afternoon. Beach is the man charged with the shooting of Ernest Gichner at the Marine Barracks in Washington on September 9, 1905. He was well-known in this city.

Basketball.

The Alexandria Athletic Club will play its second league game at the armory tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock with Company C, of Washington, D. C. The line up of Alexandria will be Tomlin, Gray, Dobson, Green, Scrivner, Biggs, and Duffy, and a good game is promised to all whom attend.

Pardoned.

The Governor today pardoned Richard C. Burnett who last summer was sent to jail for one year and sentenced to pay a fine of $300 for selling liquor on Sunday and without a license.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperates—grows strong again. LOCAL BREVITIES.

Yesterday was another quiet Sunday. The Reliance Fire Company will hold a meeting tomorrow night.

Alexandria Trades Council meets tonight. All members are requested to be present.

A fine horse belonging to Mr. Park Agnew died yesterday at the Alexandria brickyard.

Alexandria Tent, No. 2, K. O. T. M., will give a smoker in their hall on north Columbus street tonight.

There was a light fall of snow at an early hour yesterday morning. Later the weather became fair, followed by threatening conditions in the afternoon. There was no falling weather, however. The temperature continues mild.

A fire was discovered this morning on the roof of a small frame house under Windmill Hill. Some people in the neighborhood extinguished the flames before any material damage resulted. The house is occupied by colored people.

Pasqual Malatesta, an Italian, employed on the construction work of the railroads north of Alexandria who was accidentally struck on the head last Monday and badly hurt, is still at the Alexandria Hospital, though it has been reported that he died Friday last.
